Information:

1. Art must be received at Gualala Arts by Friday, January 12, 2007. Artist may bring their entry forms and fees with their art on that day.
2. Art must have a theme of Whales, Jazz or both.
3. Art must be on paper or canvas with no mats and no frames.
4. Size of the art must be 14" X 10".
5. Each artist may submit up to three entries. The entry fee is $25 per piece, which will cover the cost of framing by Gualala Arts. All frames will be black metal, Neilsen "Radius" frames with Plexiglas. All mats will be bright white, precut to 20" X 16" outside and 13 ¾" X 9 ¾" inside. The artist will own the mats and frames.
6. The artist must give Gualala Arts copying rights so Gualala Arts may copy the winning entries and use them in posters to promote the Whale and Jazz Festival.
7. Judging will be during the week of January 13. Five winners will be selected. Each of the five prize winners will receive a $50 cash award. Gualala Arts will then scan the winning entries and use the scanned digital images to produce posters, to be distributed electronically and on paper.
8. If Gualala Arts decides to print posters showing the art, and sell the posters, the artist will receive 10% of gross sales of the posters depicting their art.
9. The exhibit will be in the Burnett Gallery at Gualala Arts from March 10 to April 8.
10. The framed original art will be for sale by auction at the Whale and Jazz Festival during the first week in April, with minimum bids set at $300. Sales commission to Gualala Arts will be 30%.
11. Reception will be Saturday, March 10, 5-7pm.
12. Pickup of unsold entries will be Monday, April 9 and Tuesday, April 10.
