ART OFF THE WALL

Saturday, May 28, 5:30 p.m.
Memorial Day Weekend

For a memorable event circle May 28 on your activity calendar. That's the date for the third annual Art (and more) Off the Wall party where participants receive more than they give. The evening includes food, fun, and a guarantee that you will leave with more than you brought.

For the full benefits of the evening one must purchase a $ 70.00 ticket that includes a reception with complimentary food and beverages, and a guaranteed choice of items valued at least at $ 75.00. The order of choice is determined by a drawing. Any remaining items will be sold at half price. To just attend the reception and watch the fun costs $ 30.00. Everyone attending will also be eligible for a door prize drawing.

The selection is not limited to artwork. That's why (and more) is part of the title. Past valuable selections have included jewelry, hosted dinners, a mushroom walk, vacation rentals, and more. All items will be displayed the week before the event so you can make a wish list beforehand. Then, cross your fingers and hope your number is drawn before someone else claims your coveted item.

The better the selection, the more successful the evening; so organizers encourage everyone to look for appropriate items or activities. The donation process has been simplified. Just call Karen Tracy at the art center office (707-884-1138) before May 8 with a verbal commitment. Provide your name, phone number, a brief description of the item, and a value amount. Naturally, all the offerings are tax deductible.

On May 9, the item with its donation form must be delivered to Gualala Arts between 11:00 and 2:00 p.m. Download the form from GualalaArts.org, or pick one up at the office.

Tickets can also be obtained on-line, in person, by calling 800-8638-3006, or at the Dolphin Gallery.
