

New York New Year's Eve

Saturday, December 31, 2011
at the Gualala Arts Center

Doors open at 6:00 p.m.
Dinner starts at 7:00 p.m.

By popular request, Gualala Arts will again host the New York New Year's Eve party.

This evening of evenings will conclude Gualala Arts year-long celebration of 50 years of Art in the Redwoods!

The doors will open at 6:00 p.m. Dinner starts at 7:00 p.m. with strolling dinner stations where you can choose your favorites. The Culinary Guild is still working out details, but, looking back, they have a winning record of always choosing dinners that are enjoyable. All lovingly prepared and homemade! There will also be a martini bar, micro brews, fine wines and "Mock-tails" for purchase throughout the night. Fred Adler, well-known KTDE 100.5 FM radio personality, will provide "Classic New Year's Eve Musical Standards."

The concept of this New Year's Eve party seems to fit the Coastal life style as many people don't like to be going home past midnight, dodging deer and negotiating the windy highways.

As the ball drops in New York, the New Year is also celebrated in the Coleman Auditorium with bubbly, of course, coffee and a decadent desert at 9:00 p.m. Pacific Standard Time.

One of the truly enjoyable ways to plan the evening is purchasing a table of six or eight, and then sharing the costs with everyone. Bringing in the New Year among friends is one of the joys of living in a small close-knit community. If you are more adventurous and like to meet new people, buy single or couple tickets and be seated with others who enjoy our beautiful coastal lifestyle. As small as our community is, there is always someone new to meet or get to know better.

The all-inclusive dinner is $50 per person.
No host bar.
