

MARTA FELCMAN

Sunday, April 15, 2012, 4:00 p.m.
at the Gualala Arts Center

“A singular musical talent that emerges and manifests itself through an impeccable technique could be synthesized from Marta Felcman’s performance... She can be placed among the most outstanding Argentine pianists of her generation.”

- El Litoral, Santa Fe, Argentina

“A major artist!” proclaims Laurence Vittes, music critic of Gramophone Magazine.

“A pianist [of] the “greatest musical sophistication,” wrote The Washington Post.

“One of the finest recitals in this writer’s memory... Power and dexterity... pure musical enjoyment,” reported The Richmond (VA) Times-Dispatch.

Marta Felcman is renowned for a vast repertoire that ranges from Bach to Rorem and includes composers from her native Argentina. Her concerts are ambitious, exciting, and revelatory.

Marta Felcman has appeared in recitals and with orchestras in the Salon Dorado of the Teatro Colon in Buenos Aires, Musikverein in Vienna, Summer Festival in Toulouse, Weill Recital Hall at Carnegie Hall, the Bach Festival in Philadelphia, Herbst Theater in San Francisco, Los Angeles County Museum of Art, Virginia Museum of Fine Arts in Richmond, Corcoran Gallery and The National Gallery of Art in Washington, DC, and in many other halls and universities, among them: Yale, Rutgers, Hofstra, Wesleyan, and Texas.

Tickets are $25 advance; $5 more day of concert (buy your tickets early!).
Children and young people ages 7 through 17 are admitted free.
