GUALALA ARTS UNVEILS KAZUKO MATTHEWS' RAVENS WALL

Gualala Arts is honored to be unveiling Kazuko Matthews "The Ravens Wall" at its 51st Art in the Redwoods festival. Kazuko Kayasuga Matthews was born in Southern California and was raised in Japan. After returning to the United States, she attended Mt. San Antonio College and Chouinard Art Institute where she studied with internationally known Otto and Vivica Heino. Choosing to leave her graphics career, Kazuko attended Santa Monica College and Scripps College where she devoted herself to her ceramics, studying under Paul Soldner.

"As an observer a sense of spirituality, playfulness and formal design, emanates from Kazuko's "Ravens Wall" on the one side and on the opposite side of the piece I can visualize the roots of life's cycles transcending into the spiritual aspect of the raven" says Kate Skinner.

Kazuko describes her work as being, "events, whether experienced fleetingly or in a small way, bring me joy and excitement. The process of interpreting these feelings becomes exploration for new expression...juxtaposing patterns, and the way I play with the dimensions and the space, are all part of my explorative process".

Come join us in the debut of Kazuko Matthews "Ravens Wall" at the annual Art in the Redwood festival.

THE LADIES OF THE CAMELLIAS

Fri., July 27, 7:00 p.m.

Sat., July 28, 7:00 p.m.

Sun., July 29, 2:00 p.m. matinée

Fri., August 3, 7:00 p.m.

Sat., August 4, 7:00 p.m.

Sun., August 5, 2:00 p.m. matinée

Imagine a superstar actress with her own theater. She is the last great actress of her generation, and a legend known throughout the civilized world for her quirks and flamboyant style. Into her perfect performance palace for a one-night-only show comes her best known rival, a slightly younger actress from another country - a superstar in her own right - who exemplifies the new natural acting style. What if she was coming to perform the one work that our first actress feels is her own personal trademark. Would sparks fly from this encounter?

Now add a beleaguered playwright, two spurned lovers, a Russian dissident, a cheetah and a couple of garden snakes into the mix. Put all that together, stir well, and you would either have the makings of The Ladies of the Camellias, Art Center Theater's summer offering, directed by Karen Serratoni.

Be sure to get your tickets early - with all the fun this show promises to bring to the coast, it is sure to sell out!

Tickets are $15 adults and $10 youth (17 and under);
$5 additional if purchased the day of the performance.

FRED GRAFF, AWS, NWS, TWSA

Gualala Arts is pleased to have Fred Graff return after 5 years to give another workshop October 8th thru the 11th. Frederick C. Graff is one of the foremost watercolorists of today. He is among a select group of watercolorists who are signature members of all three major watercolor societies: American Watercolor Society, National Watercolor Society, and Transparent Watercolor Society of America 'Master Status'. His continuous growth and development in his pursuit of watercolor has enabled him to be a leading artist/educator in the field of watercolor painting.

Students in his class will explore conceptual and innovative watercolor approaches that will further develop and enhance their own personal style of painting. A series of exercises, lectures and demonstrations will enable each individual to understand how to apply the elements and principles of design during the process of developing a painting. Emphasis will also be placed on artistic expression in an uninhibited manner. One of the four days of the workshop, students will learn how to develop preliminary studies that are completed on location. Students will then be able to utilize these plein air studies

A True Devotee of Art in the Redwoods

BY ARNA MEANS

For the last several years, Eva Guerrero has been getting on a plane in Delaware and heading west to Gualala to visit her family and "Art in the Redwoods". Eva, a long time resident here participated in the very first AIR

She is 94 years of age now and legally blind, but that does not stop her from seeing and enjoying the exhibit even with her limited vision. She has four generations of family here, which by extension is my family and we all make a day of enjoying Art in the Redwoods together.

Though her vision is limited, Eva still paints in oils and can be remembered for her landscapes of redwoods and local flora and fauna. It is a joy to walk through the show with her. She is excited and curious about each piece and her enthusiasm is catching. Hopefully she will be attending again next year and for several more years to come.

"The group epitomizes the volunteer, artistic and patron spirit that drives Gualala Arts. Not only do they meet every challenge - such as the elevator project, but they exceed expectations and give back so much more than they receive. They are an exemplary model of our many interest groups."

- Executive Director "Sus" Susalla

A MESSAGE FROM OUR DIRECTOR

The only thing constant in life is change.

Another summer is upon us and the busy season is rolling along . . .

Summer art program for youth was a great success with about 100 students, assistants and teachers all exploring the creative art world with our youth ages 3 and up.

The summer chamber music weekend with Roy Bogas and Friends delighted over 200 enthusiastic attendees for standing ovations after each performance.

Rolling sculptures have roared into town and shared their artistic creations and designs at the popular auto show. Back for an encore performance was the pinewood derby, with a state of the art track and timing tower for racing the mini rolling sculptures created by our young and not-so-young enthusiasts.

Art Center Theater is busily building sets, rehearsing and getting ready to break a leg with their performance of The Ladies of the Camellias.

Plans are well underway for another fantastic Art in the Redwoods!

But one thing is apparently different this summer from the past several. Karen Tracy at the front desk and Barbara Pratt at the publicity helm are not in the office. Barbara left Gualala Arts last fall and Karen retired this past June -- your special creative energy and enthusiastic attitudes are missed. We look forward to having you participate as volunteer, artist and friend of Gualala Arts.

The new faces in the office are Susan King at the front desk and office manager, and Kate Skinner as publicity coordinator. Please help make them feel welcome as they jump in to this dynamic and buzzing environment.

Thank you from the bottom of my heart for sharing your time, experience and spirit with Gualala Arts.
