December's Exhibit

There is still time to enter your shamelessly commercial, designed to SELL art in the Shameless! exhibit in December. The exhibit encourages artists to enter innovative new work, breakthroughs in concept and design, pieces that explore the idea of art as a salable product that satisfies some basic human need.

Embrace the aesthetic of what appeals to the broadest audience, whether that's Norman Rockwell, Walter Keane or Charles Schultz. Dabble in questionable media normally forbidden to serious artists, like painting on black velvet, or plaster cast wall decorations or functional ceramics. Or, cast all sensibility aside and SHAMELESSLY dive directly into KITSCH! Find the kewpie doll in the artistic soul and exploit it mercilessly to the masses for fame and profit! Dogs playing poker! Pink flamingos! Elvis doing anything! The possibilities are endless!

Registration forms available online or at the Gualala Arts Center, enter by November 7!
